THE POET 2017 HAWKES BAY PINOT GRIS

aromatic • textured • fresh • linear

The art of poetry and the art of wine share many parallels. Both have evolved and exist in this world as portals into authentic and raw expression. They capture through words and through bottles to tell the stories of people and places. The 'Poet' Pinot Gris from Hawkes Bay, New Zealand is an artfully crafted, refreshing wine, offering delightful aromas and flavours as its recital.

LOOKS LIKE

2017 'The Poet' Hawkes Bay Pinot Gris is a subtle, pale gold with just a hint of green.

SMELLS LIKE

Fresh, green notes adorn the perfume, adding a crisp undertone to the sensory ballad that is The Poet. Red apple skin, honeydew melon, lychee and ginger account for the rest of this fruity and aromatic composition.

TASTES LIKE

A dry character, the Poet does not exhibit sweet notes, but instead offers a firm, tight and linear palatable tale, with textured fruity notes of red apple and honeycomb taking the centre-stage. Hold the applause.
